

THE LIVING ROOM:LOFT

anthology of an old ammani home

Passionately laid with original pieces of furniture reminiscent of the period as well as family heirlooms of images, lamps, radios, and the like.

It was a time that no television existed, a time where friends & relatives could literally walk in on each other & spend warm evenings together; talking about mundane things of their daily simple life.

Today's Living Room is meant to echo that homy intimate feeling.
